Dear Daniel Vergith,

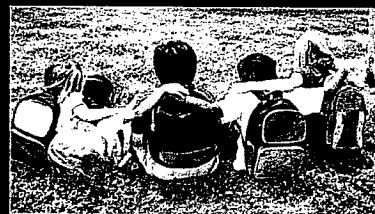

Thank you for your commitment and dedication to the students in the Clark County School District. Schools are challenged with limited resources and increasing demands to improve students' academic performance. Because of business partnerships such as yours, partnership opportunities which foster critical-thinking, problem solving, self-expression, civic awareness, appreciation for the arts and many activities that directly support the CCSD curriculum were implemented during the 2009-10 school year. When businesses and schools work together to improve the workforce, the results create a long-term impact for our community.

Thank you for your involvement and helping to mold our future leaders of tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Bridget Phillips
